We need to practise what we preach and put our words into action, without drawing attention to ourselves like the Pharisees!

Start at the arrow and write every second letter to spell out the words of Jesus

MATTHEW 23:1-12

Practise what you preach!

Jesus warned
the people about the Pharisees who boasted about their holiness and drew attention to themselves

Phylacteries were leather boxes which the Pharisees wore on their heads and arms. They contained Scripture verses to remind them of God's laws

Tassels were worn as a sign of devotion to God

Look at these Pharisees and decide which one believes himself to be the holiest!
